

John 6

February 10

OVERVIEW: John, chs. 1–12

CONTEXT: The beginning of John puts Jesus forward in exalted terms and then proceeds to show how He is indeed the Son of God by the many signs and sayings He offered. This produces many varied responses. In our chapter Jesus feeds 5000 thousand and then teaches about the bread of life. See how many responses this garners and what it teaches us about discipleship!

FIRST, A.M. SERMON RECAP (Jesus Feeds the 5000, Mt 14: 13–21)

- Having read the OT, how does this story echo Moses in the Wilderness?
- How is Jesus the One greater than Moses? How does this miracle encourage faith in Jesus?
- In what way is Jesus the “bread of life”? How is He all we need spiritually speaking (i.e. “satisfied, v. 20)?
- What does Jesus’ attitude at the beginning of the story reveal about self-sacrificing service?
- How can God take small things offered in faith and multiply them?

REVIEW: Jn 6
